THE "WAVE" MOVING WESTWARD.

The Omaha Savings Bank, the oldest in the city, has closed its doors. Ex-Senator Manderson, who was a candidate for President before Mr. Hanna and the trusts took charge of the St. Louis Republican Convention, is President of the Omaha Bank. He says that on July 9, 1896, the bank held $1,360,000 in deposits. Since then there has been a steady drain on the bank, and while it is unable at the present time to pay its depositors on demand and while it will take some time to realize on assets, not a dollar will be lost to any creditor or depositor in the bank.

It is gratifying to know that in Nevada, handicapped as it is and has been by hostile legislation, not one of its banks has been submerged by the gold standard wave of prosperity. The failures, too, in this State are less in proportion to population than in any other State in the Union. Last year, while there were 1,260 failures on the Pacific Coast, there were only three in Nevada. That is an excellent showing considering the general depression, and it proves that Nevada, which our goldbug exchanges think should be dismembered, is one of the most prosperous States in the Union. Its school fund is the largest proportionately, its debt is comparatively small, and if it can weather the storm for a few years until silver is restored, as it certainly will be, the sagebrush State will have a population of a million or more and will be one of the most inviting in the Union for capital and enterprising emigrants who want homes for themselves and families.

THE NEW COUNTY OFFICIALS.

The several county officers began their new terms of office yesterday and while three or four retired and new ones filled their places, the changes were made without confusion and the county business proceeded without a jar. County Clerk Porter, Auditor Shearer and Treasurer Boyd are old hands and they extended the usual courtesies. Sheriff McGuire, District Attorney Julian and Commissioners Beck and Frazier were new hands so they modestly received congratulations and were somewhat reticent, but nevertheless commenced their official duties with a determination to serve the people to the best of their ability. Sheriff Caughlin went about good naturedly informing his successor regarding the details of the sheriff's office and putting matters to rights for the transfer. Mr. Caughlin has filled the office of Sheriff for six years and has made a faithful and efficient officer. He has administered the affairs of his office carefully and satisfactorily to the general public.

Mr. Norcross while surrendering his trust to his successor, Mr. Julian, will still act with the latter in two or three cases that he commenced before his term of office expired. Having been chosen one of the representatives of Washoe county at the State legislature, his duties will call him to Carson in a few days. Commissioners Cobb and Alt who retired from the board were not present at yesterday's ceremonies.

REDEEMING RAILROAD BONDS.

The Treasury Department has redeemed $5,597,000 in United States bonds, known in commercial circles as "currency sixes." These bonds were issued in aid of the Pacific roads. They were called in under a circular issued by the Treasury Department November 26, 1896, and were due on presentation January 2, 1897. The total amount due this month was $9,712,000, of which $4,115,000 is still outstanding.

It seems strange to ordinary mortals that while the Government has been paying interest on the bonds issued to the subsidized roads at the rate of six per cent per annum the railroads now want the Government to loan them $121,000,000 at the rate of two per cent per annum. Congress seems to think that this is right, but the masses of the people on this coast at least, entertain entirely different ideas on the subject. The bill to fund the railroad debts at two per cent per annum is opposed by every member of Congress from California, both in the Senate and House, except Representative Johnson, and the people of his district decided to let him remain at home after the 3d of March next. So closely allied, however, are the interests of the bond-aided roads with McKinleyism that the railroad people are confident of getting the funding bill through Mr. Reed's end of Congress in a very few days.

"Why," asks the Silver Knight, do the Republicans appear to be in such a hurry to increase the surplus in the treasury when there is already locked up in the Government vaults $225,000,000 of the people's money? Because they pretend to think that more taxation and not more money with which to pay taxes is what the people need.

After eight years of litigation the United Court of Appeals has sustained Judge McKenna's decision in the suit of Bowers vs. Van Schmidt declaring Bowers the original inventor of the hydraulic system of dredging.

The Sacramento Bee, one of the brightest and most independent of papers, has entered upon its fortieth volume. It uses its stinging effectively against fraud of all kinds and long may it continue to hum.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

The Merchant's National Bank of Devils Lake, N. D., failed yesterday.

The First City Bank of Nora Springs, Iowa, failed to open for business yesterday.

The Allemania Bank of St. Paul closed its doors yesterday. The bank has a capital of $400,000.

The Legislative Assembly of Montana convened yesterday. Hon. Robert B. Smith took the oath of office as Governor.

At Jersey City yesterday Bob Fitzsimmons signed articles of agreement to fight Corbett on March 17th for a purse and side bet of $5,000 to $10,000 a side.

Another suspect was arrested yesterday for implication in the Blue Out train hold-up near Kansas City. He confessed and implicated the engineer of the train in the affair.

Miss Emma Spreckels, the only daughter of Claus Spreckels, the sugar king, was secretly married to Thomas Watson, a San Francisco grain broker, in San Jose last Wednesday.

Barbara Grogan, aged 18, committed suicide in San Francisco yesterday by taking carbolic acid. She repented her rash act after taking the poison, called for help, but died before aid could be procured.

James Duffy, a Boston pugilist who collapsed at the end of a boxing match with George Justus in New York on Saturday night, died yesterday without regaining consciousness. All the principals have been arrested.

The Germania Bank of St. Paul, a State institution of Minnesota, made an assignment to Peter Kerst, the cashier. The bank stood a run for nearly two days after the Bank of Minnesota closed on December 22d, but could not hold out.

Advices from Blantyre, a mission town of South Africa, announce the engagement of British forces and Angoni Zulus in which the Zulus were defeated with heavy losses after some sharp fighting. Five of the British forces were wounded.

Important to Consumers.

Read the following if you use the goods mentioned below:

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 29, 1896. Otto Hartung, Reno, Nev.—Dear Sir: Yours of the 23th to hand and noted. The idea is to place our goods as a side line in stores in towns which are not large enough for one of our own stores. All our agencies are in stores which do not handle any other teas, coffees, etc., except our own. The idea is to keep a small stock and order regularly every week or few days, both the goods and premiums. In this way you should always have fresh goods, especially coffee.

We want to impress upon you that you have the best goods in Reno. There is a guarantee on every package and if a purchaser is dissatisfied with any goods the agent is authorized to return the money, even if some has been used. We will credit you with the packages in stock.

If Welling & Gulling have been giving special premiums away with much we will make an exception in your case and allow you to continue to do so. They are not given with coffee. The circulars do not say so. Yours truly, GREAT AMERICAN IMPORTING TEA COMPANY. jn313

Diphtheria Cure.

The testimony of a prominent physician: FOUNTAIN CITY, Ind., June 17, 1895. This certifies that I have been using V. O. in my practice. I have never found any medical preparation in 46 years of practice that is calculated to do so much good in so wide a range of diseases and leave no after bad effects. In Diphtheria it has proved a perfect specific in my hands, and I had rather depend on it alone in that dreadful disease than the whole popular Materia Medica with that left out.

SUMMONS.

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT Court of the State of Nevada, in and for Washoe county. The State of Nevada sends to George C. Staley, greeting: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Blanche G. Staley as plaintiff in the Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Washoe, and answer the complaint herein within ten days after the service on you of this summons (exclusive of the day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said district, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The action is brought to recover judgment and decree of the Court dissolving the bonds of your surety now existing between you and said plaintiff, on the ground of willful neglect and failure to start for more than four years last past, to provide the plaintiff the necessary necessities of life, having the ability to do so; and for the custody and control of the minor children, Raymond, Carrie, Gordon and Parker Staley, the lawful issue of said marriage, now residing with the plaintiff at Reno, Nevada. All of which will more fully appear from the complaint, which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court, at Reno, in said county, and to which you are especially referred. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Seal of said Court, at Reno, this 7th day of December, A. D. 1896. F. B. PORTER, Clerk of the Second Judicial District, Court of the State of Nevada, in and for Washoe county. jan1w6.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The Newly-Elected Board Met Yesterday and Organized.

BECK ELECTED CHAIRMAN.

Reports of the Various County Officials Received—Regular Business Transacted.

The new Board of Commissioners met yesterday, and quite a number of citizens were present to witness the opening scenes.

Chairman Hymers called the Board to order, and after it had been ascertained that Commissioners-elect H. H. Beck and Geo. Frazier had been sworn in, Mr. Frazier moved that the organization be perfected by the election of Mr. Beck as Chairman. The latter seconded the motion, and Mr. Hymers put the motion, which was carried by the affirmative votes of Messrs. Beck and Frazier. Mr. Hymers declared Mr. Beck Chairman.

Mr. Beck then addressed the Board in substance as follows: "To my colleagues I have this to say: I am grateful for the honor conferred and shall endeavor, as far as it is in my power, to merit the confidence of my fellow members as well as the citizens and taxpayers of Washoe county. While acting as Chairman it will be my aim at all times to transact the business of the Board in a methodical and legal manner. There is little difference between the Chairman and any other member of the Board. I shall not arrogate to myself as Chairman any authority, but will in all cases consult and advise with the other members. I will expect advice, and will be pleased to consider the advice and suggestions of Mr. Hymers, whose long experience in county affairs will make him an invaluable member of the Board. I may say here that questions have come up regarding various matters in which I have taken an active part, but I shall not now nor at any time refer to them, but will endeavor to act, as far as the future is concerned, strictly in accordance with the statute. There has always been more or less confusion at the sittings of the Board, and I will at some future time suggest certain rules which I may be permitted to outline now, and I believe ex-Chairman Hymers will bear me out. For instance, a day should be named previous to the day of the regular meeting for all claims to be filed, in order that the Clerk may arrange his work and the District Attorney have opportunity to examine the bills I recognize him as a member of the Board and its legal adviser.

"The Board will pass the bills, and the Clerk should have at least two days to certify to the claims before passing them to the Auditor, who in turn should have a stated time to audit and complete his record, when on a fixed day, for instance the 10th of each month, the claims will be paid. This will give the Board and the officers an opportunity to transact the county business economically, intelligently and legally.

"There have been mistakes, I simply call them mistakes with no purpose of criticism or comment. I also wish to propose a new rule, viz: That in no event shall any member of the Board outside of the Commissioners' office assist or further the claims of anyone or transact the business of the Board unless he is authorized to do so as a committee, and then a complete record be made of his appointment as such committee and the character of business he is to transact.

"I believe we all feel a desire to do our best for the public good, but whether we can please all or not is a matter that I realize the full force of. I believe that each member will not act as far as possible for the interest of the general public and the taxpayers in particular. Again I thank the Board for the compliment bestowed, and now wish to introduce Mr. Julien, the District Attorney."

The Board then proceeded to the consideration of routine business.

The report of ex-Sheriff Caughlin for the month of December was filed, also his report of firms doing business under a license within the county.

The bond of C. B. Cooper, Constable of Verdi township, was not in form and was returned to him for correction.

Mrs. Westlake appeared and asked for relief for Mrs. Wilson, and the matter was taken under advisement.

Many of the bills were considered and allowed, as they had been contracted with some authority, but the Chairman reserved the right to criticize all bills in the future, and does not consider that the action of yesterday on certain bills is an indication of the policy of the Board.

A Sad Death.

Allie May, the 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson, died yesterday after a lingering illness. She was a bright little girl and will be sadly missed by her relatives and by her schoolmates. Her death is a severe blow to her parents and their many friends will deeply sympathize with them.

The funeral will take place from the Congregational Church this Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

THE NEBRASKA SUGGESTION.

Another View of the Monetary Question. EDITOR NEVADA STATE JOURNAL:—

I quote from your article entitled "Nebraska Suggestion," as follows:

"During the present year, according to the President's message $60,541,000 worth of silver bullion was exported from the United States. The average price per ounce was about sixty-five cents.

"With free coinage the foreign nations which purchased sixty million dollars worth of silver bullion in the United States last year would have to pay one hundred and twenty million dollars for it and they must have it to keep up their circulation."

"That presents one view of this question but there is another view that ought to be presented.

"It is generally known that all property is the product of labor.

"That the labor expended in producing any character of property cannot be paid out of the proceeds of the property produced, more money than the property will exchange for in a market.

"That a cheap price for the products of labor is in the interest of cheap labor.

"That the party who favors cheap products of labor favors cheap labor.

"That to bend the laws of our country in the interest of a person, corporation, or class is class legislation and contrary to the spirit and doctrine of our government.

"That the aggregate individual valuation of all the individual holdings of property in the United States expressed in dollars or units is from 50 to 100 times greater than the aggregate of all the gold and silver coin in the United States.

"It is here assumed for the convenience of the illustration that the total valuation of all the commercial property in the United States is one hundred times greater than the total amount of gold and silver coin in the United States.

"That being admitted it follows that one dollar in lawful tender coin measures one hundred dollars in property valuation, also, that the valuation of property is regulated to the amount of money it will exchange for.

"Hence when one dollar in coin is destroyed one hundred dollars of shrinkage in the valuation of property will follow.

"Also when bullion for one new dollar is dug, produced, coined and added to the stock of lawful tender coin in the United States that will increase the property valuation of the United States one hundred dollars.

"So if we mine and dig and produce and coin one million dollars of gold and silver lawful tender money and add it to the present stock of lawful tender coin, that will increase the money value of property of the United States one hundred million dollars.

"When this government exports sixty million dollars worth of silver bullion at sixty-five cents per ounce which at its coinage value and ratio would coin one hundred and twenty million dollars, we lose not merely sixty millions dollars of commercial property valuation, but we lose the money influence of one hundred and twenty million dollars of lawful tender money on the property values of the United States, which would be if coined one hundred and twenty millions multiplied by one hundred which equals twelve billions of dollars.

"That is to say, if one dollar measures one hundred dollars of the money valuation of property, then by adding one hundred and twenty millions of dollars to the lawful tender money of the United States we will advance the money valuation of the commercial property of the United States twelve billion dollars. *Again, the law enacted February 12th, 1873, destroyed one-half of the lawful tender coin money of the United States and stopped one-half the volume of production of lawful tender coined money by demonetizing silver coin and closing the mints to the unlimited coinage of silver.

"I have shown that the destruction of money decreases the money valuation of commercial property one hundred fold.

"I have also shown that the production of new money will increase the money valuation of property one hundred fold.

"Money valuation of property is regulated to the amount of money it will exchange for.

"It follows, therefore, that when one-half of the money of the United States was destroyed, that act destroyed one-half the money value of all the commercial property in the United States.

"It is generally known that there was practically as much money after the enactment of the law of February 12th, 1873, demonetizing and destroying the lawful tender function of silver money, as there was one minute before that enactment.

"It is also generally known, that from that moment there was but one-half the amount of lawful tender coined money in the United States, and we began to re-regulate the money value of commercial property to the gold half of the value of lawful tender money that existed prior to the destructive act of February 12th, 1873, until to-day in the general range of prices of the products of labor, it takes two volumes to exchange for one dollar of which before it took but one.

"That act regulated and legislated one-half of all the commercial property of the United States, out of the ownership of the classes who held the commercial property, into the ownership of the classes who held the lawful tender coin.

"Again, from the moment when we began to regulate the money value of property to gold money, that put us on a falling market.

"When we are on a falling market, the amount of money any property will exchange for decreases daily.

"It follows, therefore, that when any person converts property into money they will hold the money, as a re-investment will entail a money loss, there being one hundred times as much commercial property in the United States as there is money. When one, one-hundredth of all the property in the United States is converted into money and the money held by the owners, then there will be no money in circulation.

"If the destruction of money depreciates money values of property one hundred fold, then the production of money will appreciate the money value of property one hundred fold.

"If the destruction of money and the re-regulation of values to a smaller volume of money puts us on a falling market and withdraws and holds money out of active employment, then the production of money will regulate the values of property to a larger volume of money, increase the amount of money property will exchange for, put us on a rising market and actively employ all the money of our country.

"When one hundred pounds of wheat worth one dollar is produced that adds one dollar to the aggregate property value of our country.

"Wheat is perishable property. When the wheat is consumed its value has perished out of the wheat value of our country.

"When one of gold and silver is dug and bullion of the value of one dollar is produced and coined into money it adds one hundred dollars to the property values of our country.

"Gold and silver are imperishable, fire and the elements do not destroy them and when coined into money they are a power and value as long as our government stands. The power of money is the power of government, derives its power from the government that coins it and is inseparable from it.

"If the destruction of money by demonetization has destroyed values and put us on a falling market then the re-opening of the mints to the free and unrestricted coinage of gold and silver into lawful tender money will restore values and put us on a rising market.

"The sentiment of the Declaration of Independence is that all men are created equal, and that equal rights are unalienable. The fundamental doctrine of the Constitution of the United States, that all laws shall be impartial and that all people shall be equal before the law. That just laws are impartial laws, and that the majority shall govern, and that to coin money is the function of an independent State, and that Congress shall have power to coin money and regulate the value thereof, and of foreign coins.

"There has always been a disposition on the part of rich men to bend the laws in their own interest.

"The demonetization of silver money and the stoppage of the production of silver money was legislation in the interest of the further accumulation of property in the hands of those men who held the surplus property of the United States at the time and tends to perpetuate that holding, and is against the interest of all the producing classes, reducing our laborers to cheap labor, and thus arraying class against class among our people, contrary to our Declaration of Independence and our Constitution.

"As Washington and our forefathers adopted the policy of avoiding entangling alliances with foreign nations, and enunciated and promoted the motto, 'Not one cent for tribute, but millions for defense.' It may as well be understood; that upon that, among other grounds, I am opposed to international bi-metallicism. When our forefathers declared their independence of Great Britain they started in to go it alone. When they refused to be coerced by France they bettered that instruction.

"I am for going it alone. I am in favor of the unlimited coinage of gold and silver into lawful tender money by our own people, for our own people, and I am opposed to foreign interference and foreign government.

AN OLD TIMER PASSES AWAY.

John Piper, the Veteran Showman, Dies at San Francisco Sunday Morning.

John Piper, known by nearly every man, woman and child in Nevada, died Sunday morning at San Francisco, where he had gone in the hope that he could regain his failing health. Mr. Piper has lived on the Comstock for 38 years, being one of the early pioneers. He was known as one of the showmen of the Pacific coast and among theatrical people his name was as well known as that of Barnum or Tom McGuire. At one time he was a member of the Board of Aldermen of Virginia City, afterwards Mayor and a County Commissioner. He also served two terms as State Senator from Storey county. In the early days of San Francisco he was prominent in upholding the peace of the community and took the same active part in Virginia. He catered to the amusement loving public and endeavored to procure the best companies possible for his Nevada circuit. He was a public spirited man and notwithstanding the loss of two or three fortunes by disastrous fires in Virginia, he never lost hope and was seldom discouraged. John Piper had allotted to him more serious trouble and misfortune than usually comes to any one man, yet he bore up under it all and always had a cheerful word for everyone.

He will be sadly missed by those who knew him so well and particularly by the theatrical profession. He will be buried in Laurel Hill Cemetery, San Francisco.

Another Sad Death.

Will Bowman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Bowman, died of typhoid fever last night. He has only been sick about two weeks, and although seriously ill his death was unexpected.

For some time past Will, as he was familiarly known, had been employed in the Journal office, and up his close observation and earnest work had acquired more than an ordinary knowledge of the business. He was faithful and energetic, and had won the confidence of those with whom he was associated. It is another case of an ambitious young man just starting out in active life with the hope of promotion and success to encounter him, no clouds to obscure the bright sunlight of his life, no disappointments or hardships, yet in a few hours he is prostrated with disease from which he never recovers.

Will Bowman was a good boy and the sympathy of the community will go out to his heartbroken father and mother.

The hour and place of funeral will be announced in the next issue of the JOURNAL.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

M. G. Caillouette, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail, and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use, and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial bottle at S. J. Hodgkinson's Drug Store.
